A close-up photograph of the rear quarter panel of a red car. The car's body is a vibrant, glossy red. In the upper left, a portion of the rear light assembly is visible, showing a clear lens and a black housing. Below the light, a silver, three-dimensional badge with the word "CHARGER" in a bold, sans-serif font is mounted on the body panel. To the right of the badge, a small registered trademark symbol (®) is visible. The car's surface reflects light, creating highlights and shadows that emphasize its curves. A faint, semi-transparent watermark is visible in the background, consisting of the word "LIVIA" in a stylized font, with a large "X" and other geometric shapes below it.
