The image shows a car's infotainment screen displaying a "Functions" menu. At the top, there are icons for messages, sharing, a star, and a car icon. The main area features a 3D model of a car with a glowing blue HUD overlay. Below this, a grid of eight buttons allows users to toggle various vehicle features: HUD (Head-up display), 3D (3D driver display), ESP, Car wash mode, Snow chains, Raise vehicle level, Manual shifting (M), and PARKTRONIC. At the bottom, there are two circular climate controls labeled "LOW" and a central row of icons for navigation, home, and media. A "Climate menu" button is also visible. The screen is framed by a silver bezel, and the surrounding car interior is visible.

The main interface features two columns of controls for the front seats. Each column has an 'AUTO' button at the top, followed by three seat heating level icons (1, 2, 3). Below these are two circular fan speed controls, each with 'LOW' in the center and four directional arrows. At the bottom, there are three more fan speed controls, each with 'LOW' in the center. Between these bottom controls are icons for 'MAX' (windshield wiper), a car icon, and 'REAR' (rear window wiper). Below the car icon is the text 'Climate menu'. The 'AUTO' label is repeated under the bottom fan controls.

The bottom navigation bar contains several icons: a 'DYNAMIC' mode selector, a camera view icon, a car icon, a warning triangle icon, a square icon, a power icon, a mute icon, and a volume control icon with minus and plus signs.
